I was stoked when the computer arrived a day early! It looked pretty much as on the pictures posted. I'm so pleased of my purchase and the transaction I had with the seller. I asked for a discount and I immediately got a reply and approved of the discount which made me buy the computer immediately. The transaction was flawless! And the packing was even way better than the original one! I bought pretty much the same computer some years back which cost me about $1300+. Imagine that!
